TRIED TO BURN UP RIS RIVARD Jenious Husband Mick Held on Charge of F

John Rick, who is charged with setting fire te a house in Tonnele avenue, Jersey City, in which his family lived, had an examination before Police Justice Nevin in the Second Crimnal Court yesterday. Kick is 60 years old and his wife is 57. He became jealous of Frederick Walters, 24 years old, who boarded in the erick Walters, 24 years old, who boarded in the house, and, after frequent quarrels with his wife, left home. Mrs. Kick testified that her husiand had made threats against her. Mary Kick testified that her father said when he was leaving home: "I'll fix you all; you won't live here much longer." Walters, the boarder, restined that he saw a man running out of the back yard, but he would not swear that it was Kick. Mrs. Solomon Koselsky, in whose house Kick has been living since he left home, was positive that Kick was not out of her house on Thursday night or Friday morning. Kick was remained for further examination on next Tuesday.

ENGINEER RELLOGG VERY ILL. He Has Boon Connected with the Park De partment for Forty Years.

Chief Engineer Montgomery A. Kellogg, in charge of construction work in the Park Department, is so ill with Bright's disease at his home at 177 Alexander avenue, that Drs. Farrington at 177 Alexander avenue, that Drs. Farrington and Raynor, who are attending him, think that he will not recover. Mr. Kellegg has been consected with the department for forty years, during twenty-seven of which he has been chief engineer, and he has had charge of all the improvements made in the parks and boulevards. Previous to his appointment in the Park Department he was engaged in railroad work and helped to build the New York Central and the Harlem Railroad.
